

A Way Forward

Discovering the Power & Beauty of Restorative Justice & Reconciliation

Join the Dismantling Racism Committee for an evening of community, conversation, and learning with Rev. Jermaine Ross-Allam.

Rev. Ross-Allam serves as the inaugural Director of the Center for the Repair of Historical Harms for the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and is a Ph.D. candidate in social ethics at Union Theological Seminary. His work explores the intersections of history, justice, and faith, with a focus on addressing historical harms and advancing restorative practices.

We'll begin with a potluck dinner at 5:30 pm in the Fellowship Hall, followed by a presentation in the Sanctuary by the Rev. Jermaine Ross-Allam at 7:00 pm.

For more information and to register for the potluck visit <https://catonsvillepres.org/news/drcpotluck/>, use the QR code, call the church office at (410) 747-6180, or email us at info@catonsvillepres.org
