

JOSHUA GILHART (nominated as a Ruling Elder Alternate commissioner to the 225th General Assembly)

Joshua Gilhart grew up in Hancock, Maryland and moved further West to attend Allegany College of Maryland then Frostburg State University where he graduated in 2012 with a bachelor's degree in social science, focusing in history and psychology. He currently works as a legal assistant for a construction company in Grantsville, MD. Josh lives in Frostburg Maryland with his partner of eight and a half years, Eric, and their cat, Lennox. Josh began attending First Presbyterian Church of Cumberland, Maryland in 2016 where he quickly found a community to be a part of. Josh gravitated towards Sunday School and Adult Education classes. At FPC Cumberland he has served on the Stewardship Committee, Pastor Nominating Committee, Ad Hoc Committee to review the Church's Mission, and is in his second consecutive term on Session, serving first as chair of the Congregational Care & Outreach Committee and currently as chair of the Faith Formation Committee.