

MATTHEW 25 MID-ATLANTIC SUMMIT

OCTOBER 26, 2024 COLUMBIA, MARYLAND

At First Presbyterian Church of Howard County

The Summit is sponsored by the Presbytery of Baltimore and organized in partnership with the Dismantling Racism Team of National Capital Presbytery

“Living into Matthew 25”

Have you heard of the PCUSA’s Matthew 25 movement, but haven’t yet seen the connection to your life or the life of your congregation?

Join us in dissecting how the core principles of Matthew 25 are not merely words, but driving forces for innovation that break down barriers, empower individuals, and enact tangible change.

Are you looking for ways to get started in engaging your congregation in Matthew 25 work?

Picture yourself in a dynamic environment, surrounded by like-minded individuals driven by a shared purpose. Immerse yourself in thought-provoking conversations, interactive workshops, and real-world strategies that bridge the gap between aspiration and achievement.

KEYNOTES

Repair of Historic Harms

Jermaine Ross-Allam, PC(USA), Director, Center for Repair of Historic Harms

Ending Christian Nationalism

Amanda Tyler, Executive Director of the Baptist Joint Committee for Religious Liberty

Join us for a transformative gathering that merges inspiration with action: Explore how Matthew 25 congregations and partners are living into Matthew 25 through innovation, empowerment, and change. At the heart of the Matthew 25 movement lies a powerful ethos – a call to make a meaningful impact on the world around us.

more information:
office@baltimorepresbytery.org

Registration Deadline October 15th.

WORKSHOPS

- Matthew 25: Seeing Jesus in the Least of These
- How to Get Started with Matthew 25
- How to Write an Anti-Racism Policy
- Creating a Culture of Repair: Taking Action On The Road To Reparations
- Poverty 101
- Caring for God's Creation: Ecological Justice and Matthew 25
- Navigating Brave Conversations
- Will We Always Have the Poor? Responding Faithfully to End Poverty
- Taking Care of Ourselves as We Work for Justice (BIPOC and White People)

