

Questions for Session 1

Speaker: Dr. Corey Henderson

Facilitator: Annette E. Snyder

As you read the preface and first chapter of the book, and as you prepare to hear Dr. Henderson's presentation, please reflect on the following questions. These questions will frame our discussions as we break into small groups after Dr. Henderson's presentation.

1. Considering the historical facts of legally supported/directed housing discrimination, how are justice and morality aligned?
 - a. What is justice?
 - b. What is morality?

2. When the law colors opportunity, how should Christians respond? Consider the US government building housing where white citizens are given preferential treatment in quality, comfort, location, access to better schools and services.

3. Describe a time when you experienced injustice. (Once a few participants share their stories, discuss:
 - a. How was the story told?
 - b. What emotions were invoked?
 - c. How were you helped/understood?
 - d. What was the impact of being helped or not being helped/understood?
