

Help Us Celebrate World Labyrinth Day!

Saturday, May 2, 2026

2:00pm - 5:00pm

Every year on the first Saturday in May Thousands of people around the world participate in this moving meditation for world peace and celebration of the labyrinth experience.

No religious background or prior experience needed – the labyrinth is a meditative practice open to all.

Walk the beautiful indoor Labyrinth at Brown Memorial in Bolton Hill!

1316 Park Ave
Baltimore, MD 21217

Theme for World Labyrinth Day 2026;
“The Labyrinth, a Powerful and Inclusive Contemplative Practice”

2:00pm - 3:00pm Forum
followed by discussion

Speakers: Rabbi Emily
Stern, Kol HaLev
Synagogue, Lutherville-Timonium
Gwen Van Velsor,
Director of Family
Ministry, Second Presbyterian Church, Baltimore

“Walking the Labyrinth” – (Brief optional presentation) Following the Forum, the Labyrinth will be open to the public.

Refreshments will be served